MR STEVE SCARLETT

ESTJ © MYERS BRIGGS

Always be on the lookout for opportunities.

There's a saying in military life, "Never Volunteer".

If you follow that principal, you'll spend your entire life doing what other people want you to do not what you want to do.

Find the right opportunity and go for it. Carpe Diem!

October 2022

Steve completed over 23 years in the Royal Navy, closing his service to his country as a Chief Petty Officer Aircraft Handler. Steve has served the RN with distinction and visited over 40 countries. He has worked closely with the U.S, German and Russian Military. He completed both the Russian and German military colloquial language exams. After leaving the Royal Navy, Steve spent over sixteen years in software development working for several global/national companies. He has a unique set of skills, and his ability to operate with many different types of teams in multiple languages has been a rare asset to GRAAY® Limited.

Steve is a perpetual optimist. He can always be found working on a solution for one thing or another and is very much focused on the way forward and how to support his colleagues. As an extrovert, he is always ready and willing to engage with the team and get things done.

Steve is a proud member of the Royal British Legion, and has regular meetings with the Wealden Writers Club, a specialist group for published authors. Steve also keeps in touch with his colleagues and friends in the Royal Navy Aircraft Handlers Association.

Steve has been married to Nemone for over 37 years and has two children and two grandchildren. A point of pride is that Steve has recently published his first novel "The Chain Diaries", which is now published in Hardback, Paperback, Audible and Kindle. With sales at home and abroad, including the USA, his family and friends are now eagerly awaiting the sequel!

As a full-time carer, Steve divides his time between caring for his wife, Nemone, working for GRAAY® Limited and continuing to produce his next novel. Steve also is a passionate supporter of Brighton and Hove Albion, in good times and in bad, and were it not for his caring role he would be found at the AMEX Community Ground for home games. He plays golf, when he can.
